

LIGHTNING ROD

Sean E Avery

Silly Sounds
& SCRIBBLES

www.silysoundsandscribbles.com

Rodney was an unlucky fella;
ESPECIALLY during stormy weather...

Last week he was in his yard,
On his mower, working hard,

When the clouds gave a brilliant

A loud

A-BANG!
FLASH!

A thundering

CRASH!

And lightning hit Rod like a steel wire,
Setting his favourite pants on fire!

Yesterday, Rod was in the pool,
Splashing 'round and staying cool,

When the clouds gave a brilliant

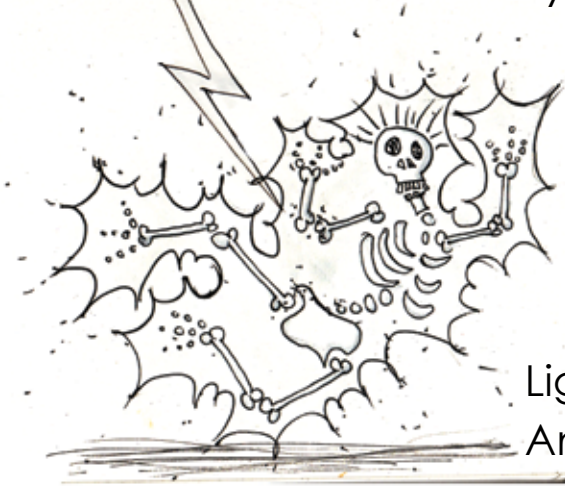

A loud

FLASH!
KA-BANG!

A thundering

CRASH!

Lightning turned his bathers into ash;
And left his bum burning with a rash!

It was the same everywhere Rod would go;
He'd be at the park, zoo or royal show,

When the clouds gave a brilliant

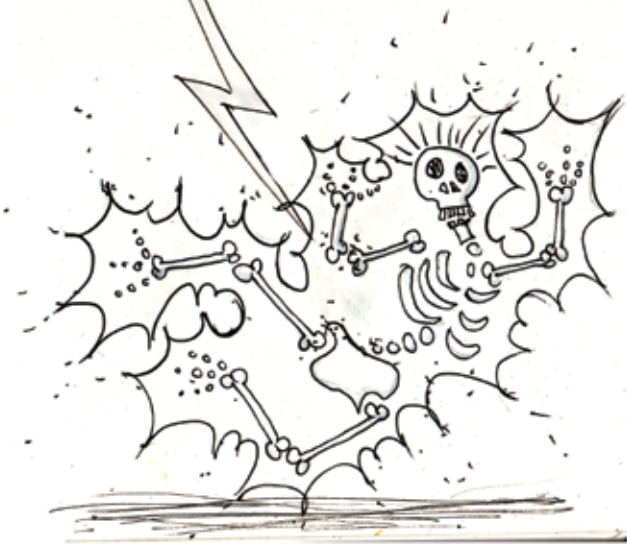

A loud

FLASH!
KA-BANG!

A thundering

CRASH!

And lightning struck him from the air
And burnt off every strand of hair!

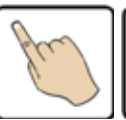

Lucky thing for unlucky Rod he had his brother Jim;
The only person in the world unluckier than him!

When Rod saw the storm clouds come around,
He'd call Jim over and he'd feel safe and sound.

You see, lighting always strikes the tallest spot
And Jim was taller... by a lot.

LIGHTNING ROD QUESTIONS DAY 1

noun

adjective

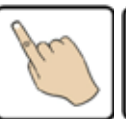

verb

proper
noun

What do you think made Rod so unlucky?

Your sentence should start with:

I think _____ made Rod so unlucky because _____

noun

adjective

verb

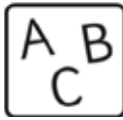

proper
noun

How do you think Rod felt getting hit by lightning all the time?

Your sentence should start with:

I think he felt _____

LIGHTNING ROD QUESTIONS DAY 2

noun

adjective

verb

proper
noun

What do you think of Rod calling his brother, Jim, every time there was lightning?

Your sentence should start with:

I think _____

noun

adjective

verb

proper
noun

What would you do if you were struck by lightning all the time?

Your sentence should start with:

I would _____ if I was struck by lightning all the time.